

ASHGROVE DANCE COMMUNITY FAIR – 3 JUNE INFORMATION

Dear Parents and Students,

Hope you are looking forward to the Fete as much as we are. Plans are well underway, and it should be a great day and lots of fun for all.

A timetable of the days proceedings is below. With the classes at Ashgrove Avenue, students who attend classes on days other than Saturday are welcome to attend if they wish. Also parents and friends are welcome to watch the classes. If the dancers in the Beginners Ballet (attending Prep) or Creative Movement and Tiny Tots Group (age 4 and up) have a little friend whom they would like to invite to join the dancing they are welcome also.

Dancers from age 7 upwards to 10 or 11 are welcome to join the Hip Hop and Jazz Class which will be taken by John Ollis.

Lessons at St. Paul's will be held as usual. The lesson times at Ashgrove Avenue have been adjusted to allow for the Dance Demonstrations at 1.00. All are welcome to watch.

We will be doing the hokey pokey after some classes – be sure to join in the fun! Mum's and Dads are welcome too.

We wish to hold most lessons at the usual times, but there are a few adjustments to the lessons at Ashgrove Avenue. Please read the times carefully.
